

Drøbak – Norway's Christmastown.....

Father Christmas post office and the Christmas house in Drøbak

With its picturesque wooden houses, galleries, small shops and cozy cafes Drøbak is worth a visit.

Less than 30 km from downtown Oslo you will find Drøbak with Tregaardens Christmas House and Father Christmas' Post Office with its own special post stamp.

It is possible you will be one of the few who sees the Norwegian "Fjord-nisse".

Enjoy a day in Drøbak, book a lunch at one for example Kumlegaarden, Sjøstjernen or Galleri Café Teskje.

While in Drøbak you should include a visit to Drøbak Aquarium, Oscarsborg Fortress and museum for newspaper cartoonists.

Welcome!

Facts:

Duration: 3-6 timer

Suitable for: All – Groups and individuals

Contact/Booking:

- Galleri Cafe Teskje: post@teskje.no
- Drøbak Akvarium: klaus@drobakakvarium.no
- Christmas house: eva.julehuset@gmail.com
- Newspaper cartoonist house:
avistegnerne@mia.no
- Drøbak Tourist information:
tom.kristiansen@frogn.kommune.no
- Oscarsborg Fortress:
ingvild.elvebraten@forsvarsbygg.no
- Kumlegarden and Sjøstjernen:
eva@kumlegaarden.no
- Follo Museum: marit.solli@mia.no

Transport suggestions:

Charter bus: www.schaus.no www.viptransport.no

Rent a car: www.avis.no

Public transport: www.ruter.no

Disclaimer: All requests will be subject to availability and actual prices at the time of reservation.

Akershus
Akershus Reiselivsråd