Arrival Gravberget Gård by bus.

We begin with a walk around this beautiful Finnskogen farm estate with a history dating back to 1858. With its excellently maintained buildings, museums and delightful location, Gravberget Gård is really worth a visit.

After a tasty lunch, we head out on foot. The 240 kilometres of the Finnskogen Trail makes it one of Norway's longest marked routes. This trip gives you a little taste of the north-central section, which many people consider to be the most beautiful.

The walk has a slight uphill section between two and three kilometres, but is generally fairly easy and mostly downhill. Make sure to walk the extra couple of hundred metres or so to take a look at unique Gravberget Church. There is a small picnic area when you arrive at Abborbua by Halsjøen Lake, but then there are only a few hundred metres to go to Haldammen, where Finnskogen Adventures awaits with a 3-course dinner cooked on open fires.

Listen in too to local stories from the area. Haldammen has long been an important meeting point for timber floating, local Finn history and WWII refugee routes, and the myths about Finnskogen never end...

The bus picks up guests here and drives back to Elverum.
