

Price per person in double room, all inclusive:

NOK 5,185

2 nights with breakfast
2 guided tours
1 lunch
2 dinners with beer and akevitt
1 'Mixing Lab.' at
Atlungstad Brenneri (distillery)
1 theatre performance: 'En Akevisitt'
Transport

Scandic
ELGSTUA

SCANDIC ELGSTUA

Trondheimsvegen 9
NO 2406 Elverum
Phone: +47 62 40 10 70
elgstua@scandichotels.no
www.scandichotels.no

Innlandet Akevitt-weekend (min. 10 pers./max. 25 persons)

Friday:

Arrival Scandic Elgstua – Elverum's 'Big House' and certified akevitt hotel!

19.00 3-course dinner comprising akevitt-based dishes with a selection of akevitts

Saturday:

Enjoy a nice long breakfast – Scandic Elgstua has won the prize for Norway's best breakfast 5 years in a row...

10.30 Departure for visit to Glomdal Museum with guided tour in the herb garden and to the 'Apothecary' exhibition. An outstanding exhibition concerning the use of herbs and liquor in medicine from a Nordic perspective.

12.00 Onwards towards Atlungstad Brenneri with a 'Munch' on the way. We stop for a guided tour around the Munch Centre at Løten, Edvard Munch's place of birth, no visit of which is complete without a taste of the famous Munch Akevitt. It is here we stop for our packed lunch.

15.30 At Atlungstad Brenneri, we really get the chance to find out more about the pleasures of akevitt. We have a brief guided tour followed by a little sensory training in discerning fragrance, appearance and taste. There is a course about how to make one's own akevitt and we round off with a 3-course dinner – with akevitt, obviously! Elverum Turbuss back to Elverum.

Sunday:

11.00 After checking out, we set off once more for 'akevitt central': Løten.

11.30 WE round off the weekend with a theatre performance of 'En Akevisitt' at Løiten Brænderi – Norway's most played theatre piece with over 6300 performance to date. Here we take part in a promenade performance covering the history of akevitt and the Løiten distillery.

