

Hike from Filtvet to Holmsbu

Explore the rural tip of the Hurum peninsula. Accessible by public transportation.

A journey of discovery in the untouched nature at Asker's southern tip, known to be one of the most beautiful stretch of coastal path along the fjord.

Tour description

The tour takes you from Filtvet lighthouse via beautiful beaches, the industrial history of Tofte, past the polar ship MS Maud which brought Roald Amundsen to the Northeast Passage and on to the art exhibitions in Holmsbu and the beautiful, colorful artists' church. Round off the hike with good food and drink at the nice restaurants overlooking the sea in the charming town of Holmsbu. There is a scheduled ferry to Filtvet brygge in the summer.

Sights:

- Filtvet lighthouse stands as a landmark and is a summergallery.
